Naples, September 26, N. S.

THE 19th Inſtant being the Feſtival of St. Gennaro, the King, attended by many of the Knights, inveſted, with the uſual Formality, the Marqueſs de Santa Croce with the Enſigns of that Order. After which their Majeſties and the young Princeſs, attended by their reſpective Courts, ſet out for Portici, where they propoſe to paſs ſome Weeks. On the 20th eight Soldiers deſerted with their Arms when on Duty at Caſtlenuovo. On the 23d, the Anniverſary of the Prince of Aſturias's Birthday was celebrated at Court with great Solemnity, the Miniſters, Nobility, and other Perſons of Quality and Diſtinction appearing at Court in rich Habits; and in the Evening the Artillery of the Caſtles, &c. were fired off. The ſame Day the Turkiſh Miniſter was to ſee the Convent of the Carthuſians; and on the 24th two of the Secretary of State's Coaches, attended by 15 more belonging to the Nobility, carried him and his Retinue to Portici, where with 60 Perſons belonging to him, he was entertained at Dinner by the Secretary of State; and in the Evening he returned to this City.

Rome, Sept. 30. On the 22d Inſtant the Count d'Oettingen, Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Bavaria, had his firſt Audience of the Pope. This Miniſter has brought with him a large Quantity of Manifeſtoes, which he has diſtributed about to the Foreign Miniſters, College of Cardinals, and Nobility, ſetting forth his Maſter's Pretenſions to the Kingdoms of Bohemia, &c. On the 25th died Cardinal Paſſeri. On the 28th the Pope, attended by his Court and the Cardinals Gonzaga and Paſſionere, ſet out for Caſtel Gandolfo, where he propoſes to paſs ſome Weeks.

Leghorn, Oct. 2. 'Tis ſaid the Toulon Squadron is ready to ſail, and that it is manned one third more than uſual.

Florence, Oct. 3. This Day a Courier paſſed through this City from Modena to Maſſa, with an Account of the Arrival there of the young Princeſs of Modena.

Petersbourg, Sept. 19, O. S. The Perſian Ambaſſadour was to leave Novogrod as Yeſterday; and the Swediſh Priſoners, though they had Orders to be ready as Yeſterday for their Journey to Moſcow, are ſtill here.

Petersbourg, Oct. 7, N. S. An Expreſs is arrived here from General Keith, with the News, that a Party of Ruſſian Dragoons and Coſſacks had attacked and entirely routed a Swediſh advanced Guard of 300 Men, whereof they killed 100, and took 50 Priſoners.

Copenhagen, Oct. 10, N. S. This Seaſon, though commonly ſickly, is now more ſo than uſual. The fatal Diſtempers are a hot Fever, and the bloody Flux. The Deaths in the laſt Mortuary Bill roſe to 104, which is double the Number that has been obſerved to have happened in one Week for ſome Years.

Vienna, Oct. 11, N. S. It is now thought that the Court will paſs the Winter at Preſburg.

Hambourg, Oct. 20. It is ſaid here that the Swediſh Admiral is dead; and that there has been a great Mortality on board the Fleet.

Hague, Oct. 27. The States General have this Day diſpoſed of the Government of Tournay, vacant by the Removal of the Prince of Heſſe Hombourg to that of Breda, in favour of Lieutenant-General Van Dorth.

St. James's, October 20.

About Three a Clock this Afternoon His Majeſty arrived here from Hanover, in perfect Health, God be praiſed.

Whitehall, Oct. 13. 1741.

Whereas it has been repreſented to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, That on the 22d of September laſt, about Two o' Clock in the Morning, John Clarke, Servant to the Widow Blee, of St. Ann's Well, near the Town of Nottingham, was ſhot, and murthered near that Place by Perſons unknown; in Order to the diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Crime, their Excellencies are pleaſed to promiſe his Majeſty's Pardon to any one of the Offenders (except the Perſon who actually ſhot the ſaid Clarke) who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

John Couraud.

And as a further Encouragement for the Diſcovery of the Perſon who committed the ſaid Murther, the Corporation of Nottingham do hereby promiſe as a Reward, the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and Mundy Muſters, of Colwick, Eſq; the Sum of Ten Pounds, to any Perſon or Perſons making the ſame; to be paid upon the Conviction of the ſaid Offender.

Trinity Houſe, Hull.

This is to give Notice, that a Sand is grown up near the Mouth of Humber, the Spurn bears from the Body of it Weſt North Weſt half North, Diſtance two little Miles. Dimlington is ſhut in with the North Weſt of Rilnſea which bears about North. It ſtretches neareſt North Eaſt and South Weſt, and is a large half Mile in Length,
